Purposes of Growing Deep

Growing deep is a leadership and formation framework developed by Lutheran Education Australia (LEA):

- To provide opportunity for all leaders in Lutheran schools and early childhood services to reflect on and plan for growth in their leading responsibilities, spiritual journey and ongoing formation
- To inspire and enable Lutheran schools and early childhood services to be places of service and transformation and contribute to the ministry of the LCA
- To grow a common and consistent language that builds a shared vision and understanding of how each individual contributes to the school and centres in the Lutheran context
- To identify the practices and capabilities that contribute to improving student learning outcomes
- To clarify and develop an understanding of how God's word, Lutheran theology and spirituality informs leadership across all areas of responsibility
- To connect all of our learning communities nationally, through shared visions and goals centred on formation and leadership
- To be used for strategic renewal and development at both a personal and organisational level

Growing Deep articulates five key areas of work or Vocational Practices that describe what we do in Lutheran education: Excellence in learning, ongoing improvement and innovation, strengthening Lutheran identity, community building, and leading effective organization and management. The Vocational practices were developed using the Australian Professional Standard for Principals.

Additionally, there are 4 Capabilities, each with 4 descriptors, that describe how we do what we do in Lutheran education. These leadership capabilities represent an integration of knowledge, skills, personal qualities and understanding. The capabilities assist leaders to identify areas for personal and professional learning.

The Growing Deep resource can be accessed here: <http://growingdeep.lutheran.edu.au/>

The Growing Deep Leadership Profiles

The Growing deep leadership profiles have been developed as a resource to support Growing deep and are intended to:

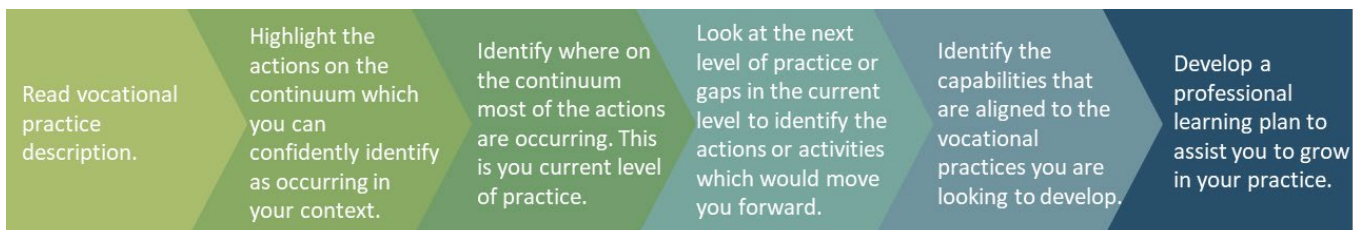

- provide an increasingly refined continuum of practice aligned to each of the vocational practices.
- present an indication of how practice in each of the vocational practices can be developed over time and through experience.
- align the vocational practices to the capabilities particularly pertinent to the development of each
- provide an opportunity for leaders to self-assess their current practice against the vocational practices and determine what their next step of development may be

The Growing Deep Leadership Profiles have been developed using the Leadership Profiles of the Australian Professional Standard for Principals

Using the continuum

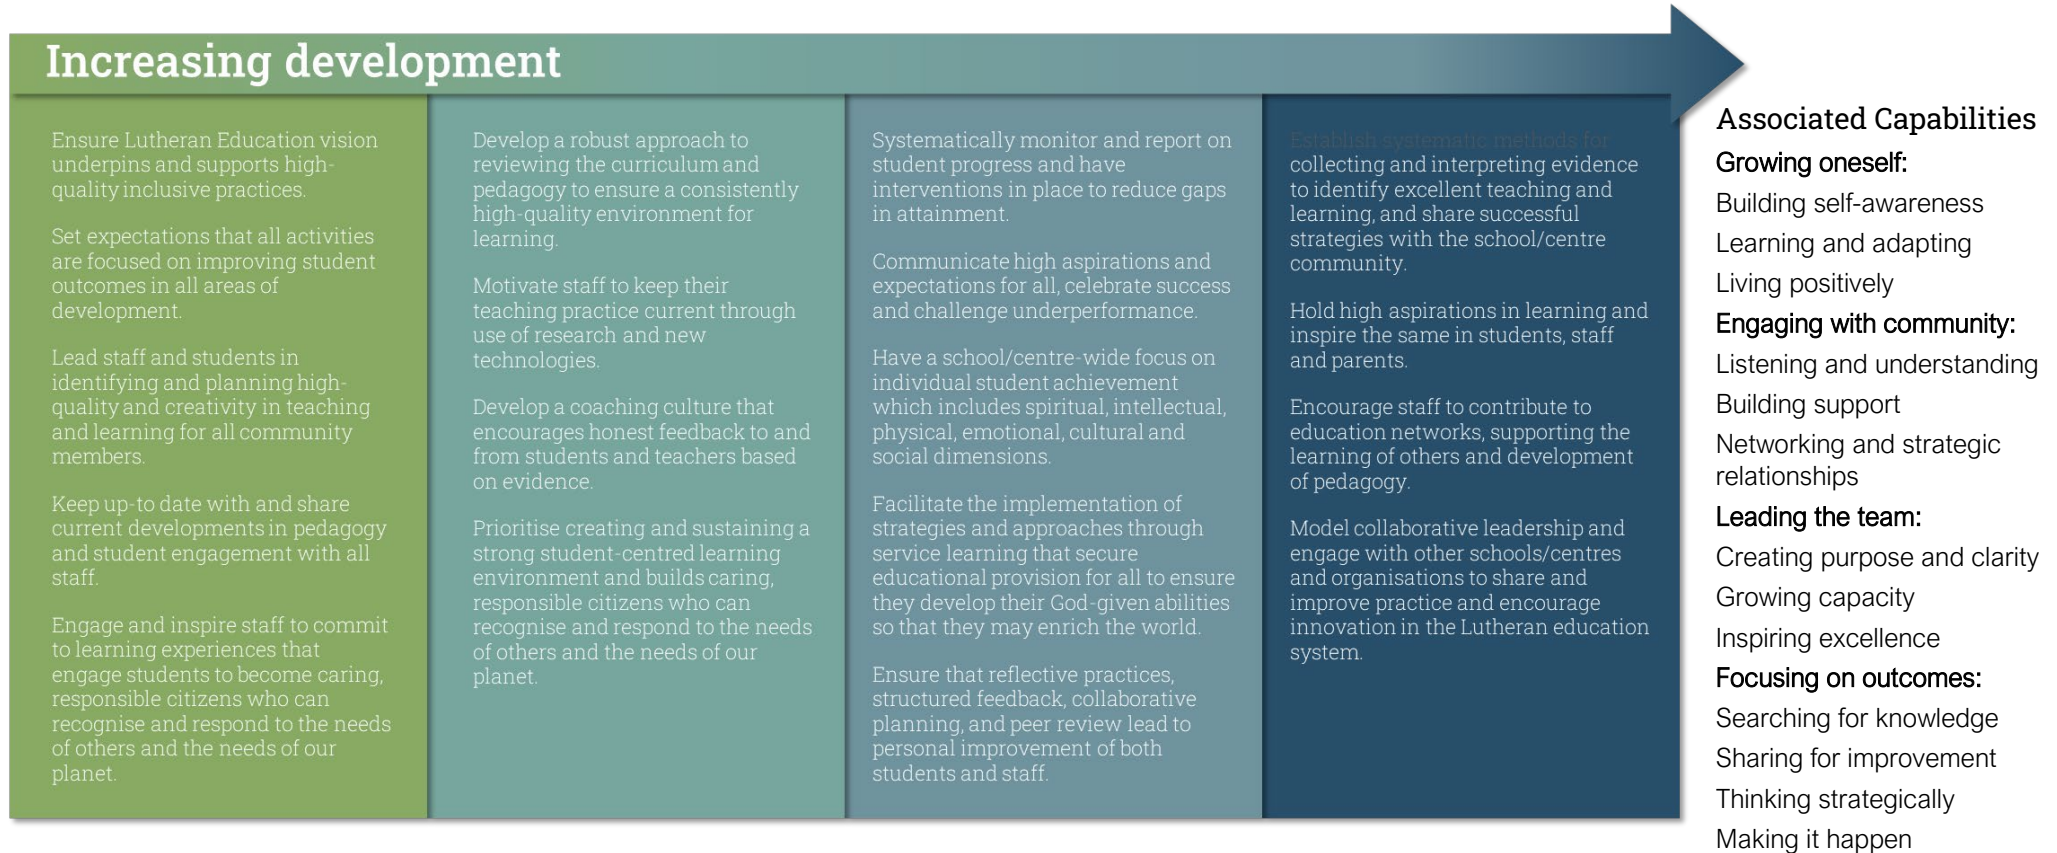

The leadership profiles continuum is a set of statements that describe practices and actions associated with the vocational practices along a continuum of professional practice. They are intended as a self-assessment tool that leaders and aspirant leaders can use to identify their current practice. In using this tool, you may find that you identify practice at various stages of the continuum at the same time. The continuum is most valuable in the identification of practices that are not presently occurring which provide a roadmap to potential areas for professional development and focus. Leaders and aspirant leaders can then use this information to build a professional learning plan to facilitate continued growth and development (See appendix 1 as an example of a professional learning plan using this resource). Any professional learning plan developed using this resource should always be completed in consultation with the LEA Growing Deep framework.

Once areas for growth have been identified, leaders and aspirant leaders can consult the aligned capabilities to determine which of these capacities could assist with the development of the vocational practice/s you are looking to improve. All of the capabilities are in some way pertinent to all of the vocational practices. However, some are more impactful for particular vocational practices. These have been identified at the side of each continuum.

Excellence in teaching and learning

Lutheran schools and early childhood services leaders value excellence and creativity in teaching and learning for all community members. A culture of challenge and support nurtures enthusiastic, independent learners, committed to lifelong learning. Excellence in teaching and learning is focused on improving student outcomes which includes spiritual, intellectual, physical, emotional, cultural and social dimensions. All learners should have access to quality learning experiences that ensure they develop their God-given abilities so that they may enrich the world. High expectations are established through reflective practice, collaborative planning, monitoring, providing feedback and reporting on the effectiveness of learning. The learning environment promotes active engagement, risk taking, motivation and a strong learner voice.

Ongoing Improvement and Innovation

Improvement in Lutheran schools and early childhood services is guided by its values, vision and mission. Excellence is pursued through a culture of reflection, collaboration, innovation and creativity. Evidence is gathered to develop and implement improvement plans and policies for the continuous development of teaching and learning, the institution and its facilities. Ongoing professional learning encourages all members of the community to achieve high standards and develop their service and leadership capacity.

Increasing development

Identify the need for innovation and improvement that is consistent with the school/centre's vision and values and is informed by student learning outcomes.

Communicate the need for change to the whole-school/centre community in an inspirational and logical way.

Engage and inspire staff to commit to evidence-based improvement, change and innovation that has a positive impact on student learning.

Deepen own knowledge and understanding of improvement strategies, leading change and innovation at a organisation level.

Work with staff to identify and prioritise their professional learning needs based on any gaps between the requirements of their roles and their current knowledge, understanding and skills.

Develop a process and common language for change, which supports the implementation of the vision and strategic plan.

Take account of the impact of change on others, providing opportunities for regular feedback so that change is owned by the school/centre community.

Evaluate outcomes and refine actions as change is implemented, paying attention to social, political and local circumstances.

Identify and implement necessary professional learning and leadership opportunities with staff that are aligned with staff professional learning plans and school/centre priorities.

Distribute leadership and encourage staff to build consensus across the school/centre community and to take individual responsibility for implementing change.

Maintain values whilst adapting flexibly and strategically to changes in the environment, in order to secure ongoing improvement.

Embed collaborative and creative practices, allowing everyone to contribute to improvement and innovation.

Model the importance of health and wellbeing, watch for signs of stress in self and others and take action to address it.

Lead and implement the appropriate use of new technologies in all aspects of the school/centre's development.

Build capacity by creating a culture of empowerment, responsibility and self-directed research that leads to the development of a professional learning community.

Modify leadership behaviour based on learning from experience and feedback from colleagues.

Embed a culture of continuous improvement, ensuring research, innovation and creativity are core characteristics of the school/centre.

Evaluate the personal and organisational effects of change through regular feedback from stakeholders and evidence of impact on student outcomes.

Lead educational networks by trialling and exploring new ideas for the system.

Build and sustain a coaching and mentoring culture at all levels with a system of peer review and feedback in place.

Develop an innovative and outward-focused role as a leader influencing excellence across the system.

Create challenging roles, responsibilities and opportunities for senior leaders that leverage and grow their talents.

Seek opportunities for professional growth through engaging in state, national and global educational developments.

Strengthening Lutheran Identity

Lutheran schools and early childhood services, as agencies of the Lutheran Church of Australia, share a recognisable Lutheran identity in which the gospel of Jesus Christ informs all learning and teaching, all human relationships, and all activities in the school or service. The rituals, symbols, visual displays and practices convey its Christ-centred identity. The school/ early childhood service community is regularly involved in Christian worship which includes daily devotions. Christian Studies is an essential and distinctive part of the formal curriculum. Lutheran schools and early childhood services deliberately and intentionally share and live the good news of Jesus Christ with students, families, staff and the broader community. Opportunities for faith nurture are actively promoted and maintained.

Community Building

Lutheran schools and early childhood services value the richness and diversity of the wider community and other education sectors. Positive and strategic partnerships are developed and maintained with students, families, local Christian communities, the broader community and Lutheran education. The relationships are built upon support, collaboration, trust and reconciliation. The Lutheran school/early childhood service community lives out the gospel and is active in service of others. The multicultural and multi-faith nature of Lutheran education and Australian society fosters understandings of diverse cultures. Lutheran education promotes the understanding of, and respect for, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Increasing development

Support the development of a strong governing body that is truly representative of the community.

Build partnerships with the local community, local Christian communities, the broader community and Lutheran education so they are aware of the vision and values of the school/centre and can contribute to its success.

Promote parental and carer engagement as a key aspect of raising the achievement of all students.

Lead an inclusive curriculum and school/centre culture that promotes understanding of and respect for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories, cultures and languages and other culturally and linguistically diverse communities.

Draw on expertise from the church and other organisations to enhance and enrich the learning experience for students and their families.

Encourage the community to use school/centre facilities in order to strengthen community engagement with the school/centre.

Identify and implement strategies to meet the diverse needs of students and their families, challenge low expectations and close gaps in achievement for specific groups.

Understand the strengths and needs of school/centre communities, promoting high expectations and achievement for all.

Work with the church and other agencies to support the health, wellbeing and safety of students and their families.

Create specific strategies for hard-to-reach parents and carers, and explore the use of technology to deepen the engagement of parents and carers in student learning.

Establish innovative processes to gather regular feedback from families and the local community that is systematically used to review school/centre practices and inform decision-making.

Lead the school/centre as an inclusive outward facing organisation.

Link with and provide support to other school/centres in effective community and family engagement.

Develop a mutually supportive, collaborative and trusting relationship with the community to ensure engagement in the life of the school/centre.

Collaborate effectively with the church, other school/centres and agencies to promote an excellent education system in which all young people can thrive.

Draw on best practice nationally and internationally to embed a culture of inclusion and high expectations for all and take steps to tackle the effects of disadvantage on learning.

Leading Effective Organisation and Management

In Lutheran schools and early childhood services, roles, responsibilities and procedures are clearly articulated so that staff can participate in its smooth and efficient operation. Data and knowledge management methods and technologies are used to ensure that resources (human, physical, technological and financial) are efficiently organised and managed to provide an effective, safe and caring, growth-oriented learning and working environment. Strategic planning ensures the ongoing improvement and sustainability of the school/early childhood service. Best practice is built upon effective collaboration between the governing body, staff, students, families, church and others.
